Sunday August 22, 2010

Join us on this field trip to witness the Ullambam Ceremony (for the deceased). Chang Yen Monastery is located in a very peaceful and picturesque hillside with a beautiful pond. It houses the biggest Buddha Statue in the East Coast. Same location as the images in Rick Sammon's slideshow on 6/25/10. Action time is between 10:00 am to 12:00 pm. You are free to take photo inside and outside of the Main Halls. Please exercise discretion when using electronic flash. No shoes are allowed in the Lecture Halls.

We will meet at Chang Yen Monastery's main parking lot at 9:30 am. Please look up driving direction at http://www.baus.org/baus/about_us/intro_cym.html . Vegetarian lunch is available in the Dining Hall at 12:00 pm. You are expected to donate $5.00 if you bring your own eating utensils otherwise $6.00 if you use theirs. We have a record of 30 members in our last visit. The number is expected to improve this year.

Warmest regards
