

Photowalking Fieldtrip
“A NYC Holiday”

11:00 am. Start at the Plaza Hotel, across from Central Park with photo opportunities of Central Park, horse-drawn carriages.

11:30 am. Enter Central Park and walk to the Wollman Skating Rink for photo opportunities of figure skaters in motion. If we're lucky, there will be a shallow coating of snow in the park making for some wonderful images.

1:00 pm. Back to Fifth Avenue for a walk down to St. Patrick's Cathedral (non-flash photography is allowed inside if no Mass is being held).

3:00 pm. Walk across Fifth Avenue to Rockefeller Center. More opportunities to photograph skaters as well as the Rockefeller Center tree and strolling shoppers.

4:30 pm. As dusk approaches, for an additional $20.00 per person fee, we can head to the “Top of the Rock” for some sunset and early evening shots of NYC

7:00 pm. We're done. Time to head home.

Notes:

This photowalking field trip will require a lot of walking though some very crowded tourist areas. Dress comfortably, in layers, (and warmly if the temperature is low), and minimize the equipment you bring.
