Departure time: Park closes at sunset

Admission fee: no charge

What to bring: any photo equipment but NO TRIPODS

- wide angle, macro, zoom or fisheye lenses
- reflectors
- filters
- etc.

What we'll be able to shoot:

- various gardens, waterfalls and architectural beauties of diverse styles
- map of the gardens: <http://www.undermyergardens.org/map-of-gardens.html>
- check to see what will be in bloom on October 9
<http://www.undermyergardens.org/whats-in-bloom.html>

Walking conditions: The paths are all paved with benches for resting throughout the park. You can walk as little or as much as you choose.
Just in case it had rained recently, if you're planning to roam beyond the general areas, you may want to wear waterproof shoes.

Directions: Put the above address into your GPS. The main entrance is on North Broadway just south of St. John's Hospital. From the Saw Mill Parkway, take Exit 9/Executive Blvd., and go up the hill to North Broadway. Turn left on North Broadway, then go 1/2 mile and turn right at entrance to gardens.

Parking: There are two small lots with spaces for about 25 cars next to the community center at Untermeyer. In addition, there is street parking along North Broadway which is both metered (coin operated) and unmetered. On-street meter parking enforcement hours are from 9:00 a.m to 8:00 p.m, unless otherwise noted on posted signs.

Please let Deborah know by Wednesday, September 5 if you will be coming to lunch so accurate reservations can be made.

Also, please let Deborah know if you are meeting us after lunch.
