

Westchester Photographic Society

<https://www.wpsphoto.org/>

Presents Michael Clark

www.michaelclarkphoto.com

Friday January 13, 2023 7:30 PM

The Other Side of Fear

Topic

Michael has been called “the Indiana Jones of adventure photography” He will go through a wide variety of images, both adventure and landscape. He will take you behind the scenes and get technical about advanced lighting and digital workflow. He has worked with prestigious clients like Apple, Nike, Fujifilm, Adobe, National Geographic, Outdoor Photography and many other commercial and editorial clients. Michael will cover a wide variety of topics. His talk will be chocked full of little-known nuggets that can help you become a better photographer. Come join us for what is sure to be an exciting, engaging and action-packed presentation.

Bio

Michael Clark is an internationally published adventure photographer specializing in adventure sports, travel, and landscape photography. He produces intense, raw images of athletes pushing their sports to the limit and has risked life and limb on numerous assignments to bring back stunning images of rock climbers, mountaineers, kayakers, mountain bikers, big-wave surfers, sky divers and many other extreme sports athletes, often working in remote locations around the world. He uses unique angles, bold colors, strong graphics and cutting-edge, dramatic lighting techniques to capture fleeting moments of passion, gusto, flair and bravado in the outdoors. Balancing extreme action with subtle details, striking portraits and wild landscapes, he creates images for the editorial, advertising and stock markets worldwide.

Westchester Photographic society is proud to invite the public to see Michael Clark on January 13, 2023, 7:30 PM. To Register email Meetings@wpsphoto.org